January 22 – February 24, 2017

Convener: Eileen Menzel. Assistant Coordinator, Helen McCusker. Facilitator, Marg O'Flanagan Byerley.

The Jurors: Nancy Newton, contemporary Toronto artist, www.nancynewton.com and Olex Wlasenko, artist and current curator of the Whitby Station Gallery, www.olexander.ca

Selection Standards: Our charge to the jurors states "that they will select works of a range of media and subject matter which shows technical excellence, originality in content and composition, and that extra 'intangible' creative spark". First, second and third place awards and up to three Honourable Mentions will be presented.

Eligibility: All members who paid their NPCC and EAG dues no later than November 31, 2016 are eligible to enter.

Entry Requirements: Submissions can include paintings in any medium; drawings, works of mixed media, hand-pulled prints, fibre art and sculpture (free standing and two dimensional) photography and digital art.

Photography and digital images must be original with all source material created by the artist and be numbered, dated and signed. All work must have been created in the past 24 months. Photographs and artworks created digitally must be original with all source material created by the artist, and be numbered, dated and signed. Only the first such printing will be eligible for the juried exhibition. A photograph must be labelled as a photograph and an artwork created digitally must be labelled as a digital print. All works must also meet the standards of the Etobicoke Civic Centre Art Gallery.

Entry Fees: $20.00 (non-refundable) in cash or cheque made payable to The Etobicoke Art Group. Each member may submit either one (1) or two (2) works upon payment of the entry fee.
